

Alexandria Gazette

WEDNESDAY EVENING, MARCH 15.

AN INNOCENT MAN PARDONED AFTER FOUR YEARS' CONFINEMENT.—Governor Kemper yesterday pardoned Edward Robinson (color ed), who, with another man, was in February, 1872, convicted in Judge Guizon's court of burning Montague's sash-and-bind factory, in this city. The Governor says: "This pardon is asked for by the jury, the Board of Directors of the Penitentiary, and other good citizens, and is concurred in by the judge who tried the case. After discovered evidence shows that the conviction was improper. It appears that the real criminal, at the instigation of a detective, sought to put his guilt upon the prisoner, so as to effect his own escape from justice; and in this way an innocent man was convicted."

The Latest.

Having made my Fall and Winter purchases of CLOTHING, GENTS' FURNISHING GOODS, TRUNKS, HATS, and SATCHELS, and other goods usually found in a first class Clothing Establishment,

I would invite the public to call and inspect them before purchasing elsewhere, feeling confident that I can please the most fastidious.

My purchases consist in part of the finest of American, French, Scotch and English fabrics. Boys', Youth's and Men's Overcoats, of all shades and qualities.

Suits for Boys at moderate prices. My stock is the largest and most complete of any in the city. An early call is solicited.
